BSL 306. Introduction to Corporate Sustainability. 3 Credit Hours.
This course introduces students to issues associated with business and sustainability, through the lens of corporate governance and corporate citizenship. Readings, lectures, class discussion, and student projects are designed to instill in students a practical understanding of key corporate sustainability frameworks, challenges and opportunities, institutions, and actors in the global corporate context. Students will learn to apply alternative decision making models to current business activities. BSL 304 recommended as a prerequisite, but not required.
Prerequisite: BSL 212 or equivalent or BUS 202.
Components: LEC.
Grading: GRD.
Typically Offered: Spring.

BSL 324. Negotiation. 3 Credit Hours.
This experiential course is designed to introduce undergraduate business students to the theory and practice of negotiation. The lectures and readings will discuss negotiation theory, equipping students with the concepts and terminology to prepare and execute value-creating, interest-based negotiations. Negotiation exercises will provide the student with an opportunity to apply the theoretical elements of the course in live, simulated negotiations. Extensive review of these simulated negotiations through classroom discussion and film analysis will assist students in cementing their understanding of the use of negotiation theory in practice. Although negotiation theory is applicable to a wide variety of academic contexts, this course focuses on negotiations in the practice of law and business.
Requisite: Business School or Business Law minor AND Prerequisite: BSL 212 or equivalent or BUS 202 AND Sophomore Standing or higher.
Components: LEC.
Grading: GRD.
Typically Offered: Fall & Spring.
