The Dean of Students Office provides leadership that is consistent with the University’s mission and works closely with students and student organizations, contributing to their co-curricular education and serving as an advocate for their varied interests. The staff works directly with academic, athletic, student affairs, and other administrators in the coordination of institutional efforts to address specific concerns, as well as to enhance the overall quality of the student experience.

Each area within the Dean of Students Office provides students with opportunities for student support, involvement, and leadership. For more information about each of these areas, click the links below.

The Honor Council - Undergraduate

Honor Council protects the academic integrity of the University by encouraging consistent ethical behavior by students in their academic work. The Honor Council investigates and adjudicates alleged violations of the Undergraduate Student Honor Code (http://www.miami.edu/honor-code). The Council is responsible for educating the University community on Honor Code related issues and promoting academic integrity through a variety of educational programs. The Council consists of representatives from the undergraduate schools and colleges.

Members of the University community who would like to request Honor Council programming or an investigation of alleged academic dishonesty are encouraged to call the Honor Council at 305-284-5354 or email (honorcouncil@miami.edu).
