

CERTIFICATE IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Overview

The Certificate in Public Administration is available for students wishing to earn just a certificate, or those who want to earn a spot in the Master of Public Administration program but may not have the academic preparation.

The Certificate requires the completion of five MPA courses with a grade of B or higher. Students who successfully earn a B or higher in all certificate courses are then eligible to enroll in the Masters in Public Administration program.

Credits in the Certificate of Public Administration program may apply towards the Master of Public Administration or Master of Public Policy degrees. Any graduate student at the University of Miami may add on the certificate, although they must apply separately to the Certificate of Public Administration program.
