MASTER IN INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Master in International Business Studies
The University of Miami Master in International Business Studies program includes experiential learning components with a classroom curriculum focused on international business models, which expose students to the region’s rich multicultural business community. The program is further distinguished by its focus on developing regional competency in each student’s area of interest and the opportunity for students to participate in experiential learning activities in Miami and other locations worldwide.

To obtain detailed program admission and curricula information please reference the program brochure which can be requested by contacting the Office of Recruiting and Admissions at 305-284-2510 or visit our website (http://bus.miami.edu/graduate-programs/specialized-masters/international).