M.M. IN JAZZ PERFORMANCE, VOCAL

Overview

This program strives to identify, recruit, and retain high quality students who are seeking to develop jazz performance expertise beyond that developed in the bachelor's degree. We maintain, present, and develop performance and outreach programs that enable the jazz department to serve as a cultural resource in South Florida. We strive to provide a creative, challenging, and nurturing environment that respects tradition, reflects current professional trends, fosters innovation, and stimulates growth among students and faculty alike.

^{*} This is a suggested Plan of Study. Your actual course sequence may vary depending on your previous academic experience as well as current course offerings. Students should meet with their academic advisor each semester to determine the appropriate course selection.

Mission

The mission of the Master of Music Degree in Jazz Performance is to prepare jazz musicians to enter the music profession and/or pursue doctoral studies. The Master of Music Program in Jazz Performance provides students with opportunities for advanced vocal study, jazz improvisation and interaction development, and both small and large group ensemble experience. Our principle focus is on the development of high-level performance skills that will enable a student to pursue a career as a professional studio/jazz musician.

Goals

The specific objectives are:

- · Provide students with advanced jazz performance expertise beyond that developed in the bachelor's degree;
- To prepare students to meet the challenges facing professional musicians today;
- · Provide students with an understanding of jazz tradition, current professional trends and an ability to innovate.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Jazz Vocal students will demonstrate a level of creativity with imagination and original ideas providing a new musical experience that reaches beyond the expectations of the musical task.
- · Jazz Vocal students will demonstrate a mastery of fluidity, fluency and facility in their vocal technique by the time they graduate.
- Jazz Vocal students will demonstrate a mastery of expression in their interpretation of jazz literature. Interpretation will be appropriate, relevant, and complimentary beyond the expectations of the musical task.
