

MINOR IN MEDIA WRITING AND PRODUCTION

(Portfolio Required - Music Majors Only)

A minor in Media Writing and Production is intended for students who are pursuing majors in other fields within the Frost School of Music. The curriculum in Media Writing and Production is designed for those students intending to pursue a career as a writer and/or producer, as well as pursuing a graduate degree in Media Writing and Production. Students interested in this minor are required to submit a writing/production portfolio to the program director for approval before declaring the minor. This minor fulfills the Arts & Humanities Area of Knowledge.

Curriculum Requirements

Code	Title	Credit Hours
Required MWP Minor Courses
MMI 261	Media Writing I: Music for Media	3
MMI 281	Production I: Recording and Production Techniques	3
Choose either a Media Writing Emphasis or a Production Emphasis		9
Media Writing Emphasis
Choose 9 credits from the following:
MMI 260	Virtual Orchestration
MMI 262	Media Writing II: Video Game Scoring
MMI 363	Media Writing III: Film Scoring Foundations
MMI 364	Media Writing IV: Film Scoring Extensions
Production Emphasis
Choose 9 credits from the following:
MMI 280	Synthestraton
MMI 282	Production II: Audio Processing and Critical Listening
MMI 383	Production III: Audio Editing
MMI 384	Production IV : Mixing and Mastering
Total Credit Hours		15