Mission
The Frost School of Music seeks to transform lives through the study and performance of music, and to enhance music’s future as the result of the most innovative and relevant curricula in higher education. The Frost School of Music is devoted to excellence and a culture of collegiality, in which a diversity of people, musical styles, and careers are valued. The Frost School of Music is a community of musicians committed to advanced musicianship for all Frost students across a broad array of majors and programs. The Frost School of Music seeks to elevate the community through intensive, sustained outreach to underserved populations. The Frost School of music strives to enhance the cultural richness of the University of Miami, South Florida and throughout the world as the result of world class performance, scholarship and research.

Accreditation
The Frost School of Music has been a member of the National Association of Schools of Music since 1939. The requirements for entrance and for graduation as set forth in this bulletin are in accordance with the principles of this association.

Goals
The primary goals are:

1. to provide music majors with a high quality education,
2. to provide opportunities for other university students to increase their musical skill, understanding, and appreciation,
3. to provide the music faculty with opportunities for creative activity and scholarly inquiry, and
4. to serve as an educational and cultural resource for the university, South Florida, and global communities.

Performing Ensembles
Ensembles provide music learning and performing experience for all students on the University of Miami campus through rehearsals and public concerts. Membership in each of these performing ensembles is based on auditions. Not all ensembles meet degree requirements. Follow ensemble policies as indicated in the Frost School of Music student handbook. Please refer to the course catalog for a complete list of all ensembles.

Music for Non-Music Degree Students

Select music courses are available to students not enrolled in a music degree program. Pre-college students, matriculating University of Miami students, and interested community adults may enroll in these courses. Students who are not currently enrolled at the University of Miami but who wish to pursue courses will need to apply as a special student through the Frost School of Music Office of Admission. A list of courses is available at http://www.miami.edu/frost/index.php/frost/students/.

Non-music majors who wish to enroll in lessons are required to audition and may, with the permission of the appropriate faculty member and the undergraduate or graduate dean, register for one or two credit hours a semester upon payment of tuition and an applied music fee of $300.00 per credit hour. Lessons by non-music majors are subject to teacher availability.
