B.A. IN ENGLISH

Overview

Students who major in English at the University of Miami choose one of two concentrations: a concentration in literature, or a concentration in creative writing. Each concentration develops students' skills in critical thinking, academic research, and writing; encourages the rigorous investigation of literary history and contemporary culture; fosters student creativity and intellectual curiosity; and prepares majors for graduate study and a wide variety of professional careers.

Suggested Plan of Study

BA in English: Concentration in Literature

This Suggested Plan of Study is a sample four-year plan, but an individual student's actual plan is likely to vary from this sample plan in a number of ways, depending on such factors as (1) AP, dual-enrollment, and transfer credits that a student brings in; (2) the student's initial placement in first-year writing, mathematics, and a second language; and (3) the minor chosen by the student, as well as any additional minor or major the student chooses to complete. For example, a student is not required to complete a cognate in People & Society if the student has a minor (or second major) that fulfills the People & Society area of knowledge, and similarly, a student is not required to complete a cognate in STEM if the student has a minor (or second major) that fulfills the STEM area of knowledge.

Mission

The mission of the English Department undergraduate program is to lead student learning in literary form and history; Standard English expression; critical thinking, writing, and research skills; and ethical reflection via the study of literature and other cultural productions. Students who complete an undergraduate degree in English will be prepared for graduate study in areas such as English and law, or for employment in any position requiring skills in critical thinking and in writing.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Student demonstrates broad and select knowledge of literary form, of works written in or translated into English, and of literary history.
- Student achieves critical and expressive fluencies relevant to GERs in writing-intensive courses, including control of Standard English, and demonstrates ability to integrate quotations and ability to edit his/her own work.
- Student demonstrates ability to analyze literature, ability to formulate and sustain an argument with appropriate evidence and documentation, and appropriate knowledge of relevant scholarship and criticism.
