

MINOR IN POLITICAL ECONOMY FOR NON BUSINESS STUDENTS

Overview

Minor Area of Specialization in Political Economy (People & Society)

The Minor in Political Economy equips non-business students with solid analytical tools supporting critical thinking to deal with economic problems. Students will be able to comprehend major economic trends and apply economic theories to the analysis of specific fields.

Non-Business students may pursue a minor in Political Economy by taking 15 credit hours of Economics courses.

Curriculum Requirements for Non-Business Students

Interested students should consult with an academic advisor in the School or College of their degree/major to determine if the minor in Political Economy is acceptable. If so, neither advice nor consent from either the Office of Undergraduate Business Education or the Economics department is necessary for a student to choose or complete the Political Economy minor. Instead the non-business student should simply declare the Political Economy minor and complete the required 15 credit hours of Economics courses, according to the following:
