Each program of study will include coursework distributed among the following areas:
1. Economics related to the country or region
2. Political or regulatory environment of the country or region
3. Historical/cultural perspective on the country or region
4. Exposure to a language of the country or region, demonstrated by completion of a business course in the language of the region, or if unavailable, completion of a course in the language at the 200 level or above. Where the country or region that is studied is English-speaking, the student may complete this requirement by demonstrating language proficiency at the 200 level or above in another language, or by taking an additional course related to the economics, political/regulatory environment, or history/culture of the country or region.
5. One international/global focused upper level business elective, outside the student’s other business major
6. Experiential Learning Component:
   - A learning experience in the country or region (i.e. study abroad)
   - An approved international internship
   - Any MBS Immersion Course that is offered for undergraduates in the region studied (including summer or spring break study)
   - Participation in programming on and off campus related to their region and career track
